Embry-Riddle Student Angelica Maleskis Receives National Aircraft Finance Association Scholarship

Daytona Beach, Fla., Dec. 2, 2009 -- Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University student Angelica Maleskis, of Port Orange, Fla., was awarded the Corporate Aviation Business Scholarship for 2009 by the National Aircraft Finance Association (NAFA).

Maleskis is a senior Aviation Business Administration student who is focusing on Airport Management at the university's Daytona Beach, Fla., campus. She was one of only two students nationwide who were chosen by NAFA board members to receive the scholarship award for $3,448.

The scholarship benefits students who are pursuing a management career in the corporate aircraft finance industry.

NAFA is a non-profit corporation dedicated to the general welfare of individuals and organizations providing aircraft financing and loans secured by aircraft; to improve the industry's service to the public; to work with government agencies to foster a greater understanding of its members' needs. NAFA has over 200 members worldwide. For more information: www.nafa.aero.

Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, the world's largest, fully accredited university specializing in aviation and aerospace, offers more than 30 undergraduate and graduate degree programs in its colleges of Arts and Sciences, Aviation, Business, and Engineering. Embry-Riddle educates students at residential campuses in Prescott, Ariz., and Daytona Beach, Fla., through the Worldwide Campus at more than 170 campus centers in the United States, Europe, Canada, and the Middle East, and through online learning.
