WEST HARTLAND'S DEREK GREEN AWARDED ONE OF THREE NATIONAL SCHOLARSHIPS BY THE NATIONAL AIRCRAFT FINANCE ASSOCIATION
Inaugural award recipient is Aviation Management student at Daniel Webster College.

NASHUA, NH – Daniel Webster College today announced that Derek Green of West Hartland was awarded the National Aircraft Finance Association (NAFA) Corporate Aviation Business Scholarship.

The scholarship was established to benefit students who are pursuing a management-oriented career in corporate aviation, specifically within the corporate aircraft finance industry.

Greene, a senior Aviation Management student at Daniel Webster College, was one of only three students from across the nation to receive this inaugural scholarship award. Recipients were chosen by NAFA board members based on various criteria, including course of study and academic performance.

Joseph Dini, senior vice president and director of the aircraft lending group for Sovereign Bank; a board member of NAFA; and a trustee of Daniel Webster College; presented Green with a certificate and scholarship check for $2693.
